

lead4ward

reading AND writing academy

{6-eoc}
a year-long service

The goal of the lead4ward Reading & Writing Academy is to provide a learning and support system for educators with face-to-face professional development and virtual support throughout two consecutive school years. Participants will synthesize, adapt, and transfer current and new learning to provide effective reading/writing instruction, practice, and assessment. Following a learn, practice and reflect model, academy members will leave with the confidence and competence to set in motion relevant change to promote students as lifelong readers, writers, and learners.

with emphasis on

- Big idea/shift
- Making it work – pacing and timing
- Reading and writing process
- Effective independent reading practice
- Genre study
- Instructional variety
- Student learning reports
