

Team of 8 Partnership Agreement

Our commitment to "what is said here, stays here; what is learned here, leaves here" is crucial. It ensures that our discussions remain confidential, fostering a safe space for open and honest communication. As a team of eight, we share the responsibility of using our collective knowledge to benefit our students and community. By working together with integrity and dedication, we set a strong example and strive to do what is best for our students.
